Managing IP Quotes Robert Katz on Navigating Design Patent Enforcement Spike

Managing IP spoke with Banner Witcoff shareholder Robert Katz on the spike in design patent litigation in recent years.

The article notes that the rise in cases at the District Court for the Northern District of Illinois generally comes down to Schedule A cases. When asked about this, Robert states “For innovators who create, Schedule A is a meaningful way of getting at [infringers] without having to file 20 lawsuits.”

Posted: January 31, 2025