Webinar: Patentable Subject Matter After Bilski

July 12, 2010

Event web image.GIF
A Banner & Witcoff and BNA Recorded Webinar:

Patentable Subject Matter After Bilski

On July 8, 2010, the lawyers of Banner & Witcoff and University of Richmond School of Law Professor Christopher Cotropia, led a panel discussion on the highly anticipated U.S. Supreme Court decision in Bilski v. Kappos.
Click here to view the 90-minute recorded program.

*Please note CLE credit is only available for attending the live event. Listening to a recording of the webinar does not qualify you for CLE credit.

Program Highlights:

- Gain an understanding of how this decision will affect your existing patents.
- Learn the best strategies and practices to protect your business method innovations in light of this decision.
- Learn tips on prosecuting business method patent applications in the USPTO.
- Learn how to evaluate the merits of continuing to prosecute existing business method applications in the USPTO.

Please contact any of the presenters with your questions, or contact any Banner & Witcoff attorney for more information about the firm's capabilities in this specialized area of law.If you have technical difficulties with the webinar program file, please contact the webmaster at info@bannerwitcoff.com.

Posted: July 12, 2010