Subject: Sibley Trustee Dale H. Hoscheit, Esq. Wins the McNulty Award

On December 6, The Healthcare Council of the National Capital Area celebrated its 60th year and presented its highest honor, The Mathew F. McNulty, Jr. Award, to Sibley Memorial Hospital's Dale H. Hoscheit, Esq., a member on Sibley's Board of Trustees for 32 years. The award is in "recognition of significant contributions to the healthcare field." Dennis O'Leary, MD, President, Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) was the featured speaker.

Robert L. Sloan, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sibley Memorial Hospital, said, "Mr. Hoscheit, as Chair of the Building and Grounds Committee, has wisely guided committee members, executive management and the Board of Trustees in planning and carrying out the growth of the Hospital and its services as well as strengthening the Hospital's financial position. Mr. Hoscheit is an outstanding Trustee and he has demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to Sibley and service to this community."

On hand for the award presentation were Edward J. Miller, Jr., Chairman of the Sibley's Board of Trustees, Stephanie Hoscheit, RN, Roca Harding, Executive Assistant to the Board, and Robert M. Ludewig, MD, Vice President, Patient Safety, Quality and Medical Affairs and Robert Malson, President of the District of Columbia Hospital Association.

Mr. Hoscheit is a patent attorney in the Washington, DC office of Banner & Witcoff, Ltd. He is a distinguished lawyer who is experienced in Federal and United States International Trade Committee practice and he is an adjunct Professor at George Mason University Law School.

The Healthcare Council is a not-for-profit, regional association serving healthcare providers in Maryland, Washington, DC and Virginia. Joseph P. Burns is the current President and Chief Executive Officer.
