American Bar Foundation Fellows Elect Darrell Mottley Secretary

Banner Witcoff attorney Darrell Mottley has been elected secretary of the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation (ABF). His term took effect Sept. 1, 2020, and will lead him to serve as chair in three years.

Established in 1955, the Fellows is an honorary society of attorneys, judges, law faculty and legal scholars around the globe whose careers have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the legal profession and their communities. The Fellows support the research of the ABF, with membership being limited to 1 percent of the lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction.

More information about the Fellows is available on ABF's website.
