

Banner & Witcoff a top firm protecting innovation in America.

November 7, 2008

The November 2008 issue of IP Law & Business names Banner & Witcoff, Ltd. as one of the top U.S. law firms protecting intellectual property for the world's 50 most innovative companies.

"Who Protects Innovation in America 2008" reports which U.S. law firms are prosecuting patents and litigating intellectual property cases in the United States for companies identified by BusinessWeek and the Boston Consulting Group as "The World's 50 Most Innovative Companies".

Banner & Witcoff tops the list for patent prosecution work with clients like Nokia, Bank of America, and NIKE. The rankings are based on research of IP litigation and patent prosecution activity from January to September 2008.
