Banner Witcoff Kicks Off 2026 Summer Associate Program

Banner Witcoff is pleased to launch its 2026 summer associate program this month by welcoming eight law students to its Chicago and Washington, D.C. offices.

The summer associate program is a key component of Banner Witcoff's recruiting efforts. The firm offers law students the opportunity to work closely with attorneys, assist in diverse legal assignments, and participate in educational programming and networking activities.

The following first and second-year law students will participate in Banner Witcoff's 2026 summer associate program:

- Dawson Imhoff, Wake Forest University School of Law
- Chloe Johnson, Chicago Kent College of Law
- Grant Kirby, University of Illinois College of Law
- Jack Lamb, University of Virginia School of Law
- Sarah Meece, University of Illinois College of Law
- Henry Millar, The George Washington University Law School
- Olivia Villamagna Staib, Chicago Kent College of Law
- Daniel Villare, Northwestern Pritzker School of Law

Students are selected based on their strong academic records in law school and undergraduate studies, technical backgrounds, and personal accomplishments. A high percentage of Banner Witcoff's attorneys began at the firm in the summer associate program.
