Banner Witcoff to Host Design Law Virtual Event

December 10, 2020

Banner Witcoff and Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox are partnering to host the Design Law Virtual Event 2020 on Dec. 10. The 90-minute, fast-paced online program will explore timely topics in design law.

Banner Witcoff is a founding creator and sponsor of the event, with this year's virtual program marking the fourth iteration of Design Law. The program brings together design leaders throughout the U.S. and around the world to present and foster debate on cutting edge design-related topics.

Click here to register or view materials from past programs. More information will follow in the coming weeks about event registration, speakers, and the program format.