Banner & Witcoff welcomes four summer associates

Banner & Witcoff, Ltd., a national intellectual property law firm dedicated to the procurement, enforcement and litigation of intellectual property rights throughout the world, welcomes four summer associates to the firm.

The following law students will join Banner & Witcoff's Chicago and Washington, D.C., offices this summer:

- Kevin Dam, Chicago, Washington University School of Law;
- Grant Hodgson, Washington, D.C., J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University;
- Thomas Loy, Chicago, New York University School of Law;
- Rich Rothman, Washington, D.C., The George Washington University Law School.

Law students are selected for the summer associate program based on their strong academic records in law school and undergraduate studies, technical backgrounds and personal achievements.

The summer associate program is a significant part of Banner & Witcoff's recruiting program and is designed to provide law students with an educational and meaningful law firm experience. Summer associates work on a variety of legal assignments and are immersed in the firm's unique culture. Educational programming and social activities round out the program. A high percentage of the firm's full-time associates have completed the summer associate program.
