Binal Patel, Scott Kelly to Speak About Future of Software IP at IPBC Connect

March 24, 2021

Banner Witcoff President Binal Patel and attorney Scott M. Kelly will discuss the future of software IP at IPBC Connect, a virtual conference hosted by IAM from March 22-26.

Binal and Scott will speak during a March 24 session that will examine the pivotal role software played in keeping the world connected in 2020. They and other senior IP executives will discuss how software IP is used, managed and protected, as well as some of the challenges they faced and strategies used to stay ahead of the curve.
