B&W Attorneys named “Top Intellectual Property Lawyers” by the Leading Lawyers Network

May 4, 2006

Banner & Witcoff is pleased to announce that Mark Banner, Marc Cooperman, Jon Nelson, Christopher Renk, Robert Resis and Charles Shifley have been recognized as Top Intellectual Property Lawyers by the Leading Lawyers Network. Additionally, Mr. Banner was named one of the top 100 Leading Business Lawyers in Illinois.

The Leading Lawyers Network is a leading Midwestern legal information provider. The list of Leading Lawyers is the result of thousands of contacts with Illinois lawyers asking them which of their peers they believe comprise the top lawyers in over 70 practice areas. Lawyers cannot nominate themselves or anyone at their own law firm, and the final list represents the top 5 percent of lawyers in the state of Illinois.
