Darrell G. Mottley is honored at the 2012 Fashion Law Week media mixer in Washington, DC.

October 15, 2012

Fashion Law Week was created to engage students and the broader community in the discussion surrounding legal issues that impact the fashion industry. Fashion Law Week will provide an open forum for all participations to learn more about pending legislations as well as other legal issues facing the fashion industry.

As a precursor to Fashion Law Week 2013, the Fashion Media Mixer will feature a brief presentation about Fashion Law. by a local practitioner who is shaping the field. The audience will be comprised of fashion bloggers and other media outlets. The event will also honor a Fashion Law pioneer Darrell G. Mottley, Esq.

More information is available here.

Posted: October 15, 2012