Darrell G. Mottley named new editor-in-chief of Landslide magazine

The American Bar Association's Section of Intellectual Property Law (ABA-IPL) has named Darrell G. Mottley editor-in-chief of its Landslide magazine.

Mr. Mottley previously served as deputy editor-in-chief and moved into his new role at the ABA Annual Meeting in Chicago, July 30-Aug. 4, 2015. He will serve a two-year term.

The ABA-IPL publishes Landslide magazine six times a year, offering analysis, news and commentary on patents, trademarks, copyright, trade secrets, and related areas of the law. It also notifies readers of ABA-IPL news and events.

Please click here to read the publication.

Posted: August 4, 2015