Darrell Mottley to Speak at IoT Virtual National Institute

September 2, 2020

Banner Witcoff attorney Darrell Mottley will speak at the American Bar Association's Internet of Things (IoT) 2020 Virtual National Institute, a weekly conference series that will run from Sept. 2 to Sept. 30.

Darrell will speak on the first day of the series for a panel titled, "A Crash Course on the Power and Legal Risks of IoT." He and his co-presenters will discuss the continually evolving IoT technology and explore potential impacts of IoT on individuals, amrt cities and companies, as well as the unexpected legal issues it raises.
