

Design Patent Law Stakeholders Identify Trends Distinguishing Utility Patent Rules

Bloomberg Law summarizes Banner & Witcoff and GWU's Design Law 2014 Symposium

On November 21, 2014 the first Design Law 2014 symposium took place at George Washington University Law School. Banner & Witcoff co-sponsored and co-organized the full day event focused on design patent law before about 150 attendees.

Banner & Witcoff's Robert S. Katz co-moderated the opening session on Remedies and the closing session "A Town Hall Discussion: Are Changes Needed?"

Richard S. Stockton joined the second panel discussion focused on Functionality. See the attached document or click here* to read a summary of the event published by Bloomberg Law.
