Federal Circuit affirms decision for Sandia Corp.

April 17, 2006

Banner & Witcoff is pleased to announce that the Federal Circuit ruled in favor of client, Sandia Corp., in Rozenblat v. Sandia. The Court affirmed a decision from the Northern District of Illinois dismissing the case for lack of subject matter jurisdiction and lack of personal jurisdiction. The plaintiff, Mr. Rozenblat, had filed a declaratory judgment action to invalidate a Sandia patent. The Federal Circuit decided the case on the briefs.

Sandia Corp. was represented by Banner & Witcoff attorneys Janice Mitrius, Charles Shifley and Jeff Cox.

Posted: April 17, 2006