

FICPI 23rd Open Form

Banner Witcoff attorneys Robert Katz, Anna King, and Reilley Keane are attending the FICPI 23rd Open Forum in Budapest, Hungary from September 16 to 19.

Robert Katz will join a panel on Friday, September 18. The session, “The Dual Shield: Navigating the Overlap of Copyright and Design Law and Maximizing Protection at the Intersection of IP Rights,” will dive into the complex world of overlapping IP and explore how to leverage both copyright and design rights for maximum protection. More information is available here.

Reilley Keane is also participating in a panel on Friday September 18. Reilley and his co-panelists will provide an overview on what has currently changed in their respective jurisdictions during the “Patent Update from Around the World: Presented by Young Members from a Number of Key Jurisdictions,” session. More information is available here.

More information about the FICPI 23rd Open Forum can be found by clicking here.