Helen Hill Minsker recognized in INTA Bulletin for role in INTA/USPTO industry training focused on coffee industry

Helen Hill Minsker was recognized in the International Trademark Association's INTA Bulletin for her role in the Government Officials Training Committee's second United States Patent and Trademark Office training.

Ms. Minsker moderated the panel, which focused on the coffee industry this year.

Click here for more information.

Posted: December 19, 2017