

IP Deep Dive for In-House Counsel: Navigating Video Game IP and the Intersection of Copyrights, Trademarks and Patents

Shareholder Ross Dannenberg will present “Navigating Video Game IP and the Intersection of Copyrights, Trademarks and Patents” for an In-House Connect webinar on Wednesday, September 25.

Ross will examine the challenges in protecting IP rights, legal strategies, and determining the best avenue to protect IP rights in the gaming industry. Ross will also discuss:

- What are the infringement risks for gaming creators, designers, and companies?
- What copyright, trademark, and patent issues should counsel anticipate and address during the development of a game?
- What strategies should IP counsel employ to enforce IP rights in the gaming industry?
