Janice V. Mitrius has been appointed co-chair of the Judicial Intern Opportunity Program committee for the ABA Section of Litigation.

August 4, 2008

The Judicial Intern Opportunity Program is a full-time, six-week minimum, summer internship program open to all first- or second-year minority and/or financially disadvantaged law students who want to do legal research and writing for state or federal judges in participating cities. The program seeks to provide internship opportunities for minority or financially disadvantaged law students, those who are members of traditionally underrepresented groups in the legal profession.
