

Jason S. Shull is appointed Co-Chair of the Content Management Committee for the ABA's Section of Litigation.

July 30, 2008

The Content Management committee is responsible for monitoring and helping to maintain the quality of all Section of Litigation committees' publications and written materials content. The Content Management committee also is responsible for the availability and accessibility of all committee-generated content to all Section of Litigation members, irrespective of committee membership or whether the original content appeared in print or electronic form.

Please click here for more information.

Posted: July 30, 2008