Katie Laatsch Fink Named a Top Woman in Law

Firm President Katie Laatsch Fink has been recognized by Law Bulletin Media as a 2026 Top Woman in Law. Honorees are selected based on their efforts to advance women in the legal profession, demonstrate exceptional leadership, and achieve outstanding professional success.

Katie represents clients in intellectual property litigation and counsels them on the development, management, and protection of their intellectual property portfolios. She also manages trademark portfolios for clients ranging from startups to multinational corporations. Katie advises clients on trademark protection strategies and the procurement of trademark registrations in the United States and around the world, helping them build and maintain strong, effective trademark portfolios.

In addition to her practice, Katie is an active member of Chicago Women in IP (ChiWIP) and serves on the organization's scholarship committee. To learn more about Katie's experience and accomplishments, click here.

Posted: November 19, 2026