Managing IP Ranks Banner Witcoff as a Top PTAB Firm in 2020

Banner Witcoff was one of the most active law firms at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) in 2020, according to an analysis by Managing Intellectual Property magazine.

The magazine named the firm to its list of the top 30 law firms at the PTAB for petitioners and respondents in PTAB proceedings last year, and ranked Banner Witcoff No. 11 on its list of the top 50 law firms for petitioners and patent owners.

In addition to the firm's rankings, Managing IP recognized several Banner Witcoff attorneys for their robust PTAB practices. John Hutchins ranked No. 9 on the list of the top 50 petitioner attorneys at the PTAB in proceedings filed in 2020, along with Fred Meeker (No. 15), Craig Kronenthal (No. 45), and Chunhsi Andy Mu (No. 48).

The publication also ranked the top 50 PTAB petitioners and patent owners, which included a number of Banner Witcoff clients. Managing IP analyzed data from the Docket Navigator database to compile its rankings, which were published in a Jan. 11 article that is available online to subscribers.
