Matthew May Featured Speaker for Service Academy Business Mastermind's "Entrepreneurial All Call" Webinar

Banner Witcoff's Matthew May is the featured speaker for the Service Academy Business Mastermind's (SABM) "Entrepreneurial All Call' webinar on Friday, September 15 at noon ET.

The webinar will discuss business ownership opportunities at veteran-led companies. SABM hosts virtual meet-ups every month to connect military veterans with business ownership and leadership opportunities at veteran-founded companies.

Matthew served with the United States Army, Illinois National Guard, and Army Reserve before retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel in 2022. He also is the chair of the Banner Witcoff Veterans Alliance and a member of the IP Working Group with the National Defense Industrial Association.

According to its website, SABM is a community of Academy graduates who create exponential value for each other through new learning, collaboration and connections. Their purpose is to help Service Academy graduates achieve freedom of time, money, and happiness through entrepreneurship and business ownership.
