A Banner & Witcoff Recorded Webinar: Navigating the Internet's So-Called "Next Big .Thing"

On December 15, Banner & Witcoff attorney Richard Stockton presented a webinar on the current state of the new generic Top Level Domain (gTLD) process and strategies for moving forward, including:

- A brief introduction to gTLDs and the new gTLD process;
- Recent updates to the process (including updates from ICANN's latest meeting in Senegal);
- A pragmatic look at the players and pitfalls involved; and,
- Strategies for seeking new gTLDs and handling others' pursuit of new gTLDs through objections or other means.
