Intellectual Property Law Scholarship

at

George Mason University School of Law

George Mason University School of Law is grateful to the law firm of Banner & Witcoff, Ltd., for establishing the Banner & Witcoff Intellectual Property Law Scholarship this year. Through the law firm's generosity, an entering first-year IP student will receive a scholarship in the amount of $5,000 to assist in the first year of study. This scholarship may be divided between two students, depending upon the number and qualifications of applicants.

Banner & Witcoff has been a good friend to our law school over the years and has hired a number of George Mason students and alumni. We sincerely thank Banner & Witcoff for helping to support our continuing efforts to recruit outstanding IP students.

You are invited to apply for the Banner & Witcoff IP Scholarship

If you wish to apply for the Banner & Witcoff Intellectual Property Law Scholarship, please complete and return the enclosed postcard no later than May 1, 2002. A committee of members of the law school administration and of Banner & Witcoff will select the scholarship recipient or recipients during the last week of May. The selection will be based upon the information contained in applications for admission to the School of Law.

Please note that in order for us to award the scholarship funds, some information in your application for admission to George Mason University School of Law will be shared with the members of Banner & Witcoff serving on the selection committee (the information that will be shared will be limited to your name, address, educational background, extracurricular activities and professional accomplishments). By returning the enclosed postcard, you consent to George Mason University School of Law's sharing this information with members of Banner & Witcoff for the purpose of considering you for this scholarship.
