Mercedes Meyer Joins Women Leaders in Life Science Law Panel: Mastering the Art of Rainmaking

Mercedes Meyer will participate as a panelist during the Women Leaders in Life Sciences Law Conference presented by the American Conference Institute (ACI) in Boston on July 26-27.

The panel, Mastering the Art of Rainmaking: Pro Tips for Perfecting Your Pitch, Bringing in Business and Ensuring You Get the Origination Credit, will take place Wednesday, July 26th at noon EST. Mercedes and her co-panelists will share their tools for developing a strong and diverse network, marketing oneself, and effective tactics for turning a “no” into a “yes,” and other strategies to master the art of rainmaking. More information on Mercedes’ panel can be found here.
