Mercedes Meyer Explores the Three C's of Attorney Ethics at AIPLA Mid-Winter Institute

Banner Witcoff's Mercedes Meyer will present on attorney ethics at the AIPLA Mid-Winter Institute on Friday, February 3rd at 11 AM EST.

Mercedes' presentation, titled "The Three C's of Attorney Ethics: Candor, Confidentiality and Conflicts of Interest," is a joint program with Professor David Hricik and will provide possible insights into ethics issues by the USPTO in response to the 2022 "Executive Order Promoting Competition in the American Economy." The speakers will also address generally the problems arising from the requirements of candor, confidentiality, conflicts of interest, and communication.

Banner Witcoff is a proud sponsor at the AIPLA Mid-Winter Institute. You can learn more about the program by clicking here.
