Mercedes Meyer to Speak on Acquiring Distressed yet Promising Life Sciences IP Assets at 6th Annual Summit on Life Sciences IP Due Diligence

Banner Witcoff attorney Mercedes Meyer is scheduled to speak on a panel at the American Conference Institute's 6th Annual Summit on Life Sciences IP Due Diligence in Boston on Wednesday, November 29, at 2 p.m. ET.

Mercedes and her co-panelists will present, "From Distress to Success: Mastering the Enhanced IP Due Diligence Needed to Safely Acquire Distressed yet Promising Life Sciences IP Assets." Their discussion will delve into the scope of intellectual property assets associated with distressed companies, encompassing patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, and proprietary technology. The panel will review the issues faced by the debtor, the acquirer, and the non-debtor licensor.  The panel aims to cover investigations and practical considerations when reviewing and handling the intellectual property of a debtor.
