Novaira Paul Elected VP of Communications for SABA Chicago Executive Board

Banner Witcoff attorney Novaira Paul has been elected to the executive board of the South Asian Bar Association (SABA) of Chicago. She will serve as vice president of communications for a one-year term beginning on Jan. 1, 2020.

Novaira, who currently serves on the board as a general director, was sworn in during the association's 10th Annual Gala and Foundation Benefit on Nov. 16. Banner Witcoff sponsored the event, which will feature a dinner and installation ceremony, as well as a cocktail reception and silent auction that will benefit the SABA Chicago Foundation.

SABA Chicago is a volunteer bar association serving Chicagoland's South Asian community. The association works to provide its members with professional growth and development opportunities.

Click here for more information about SABA Chicago.

Posted: November 12, 2019