Patent Eligibility Bulletin: New USPTO Guidance And AI Risks

Banner Witcoff's David Glass and Reilley Keane discuss the rapidly evolving field of subject matter eligibility at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and courts, and practical guidance for practitioners for Law360's quarterly Patent Eligibility Bulletin.

The installment explores a recent decision from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit reinforcing the boundaries of patent eligibility as it concerns artificial intelligence and machine learning models, as well as the updated USPTO guidance on subject matter eligibility declarations.
