Rebecca Ding Joins Firm as Associate

Rebecca Ding has joined Banner Witcoff as a first-year associate. Her arrival marks the sixth new attorney[1] to join the firm since late October.

Rebecca, who participated in the firm's summer associate program as a 1L and 2L, joined Banner Witcoff's Washington, D.C., office on Nov. 30. She earned a bachelor's degree in electrical engineer and computer science from Peking University, and a law degree from The George Washington University Law School. Rebecca will handle prosecution matters.

Earlier this fall, Banner Witcoff — a nationally recognized intellectual property law firm with 100-years of history and more than 120 attorneys — welcomed Alexander J. Bruening, Peter E. Loy, Sonia Okolie, Priya Persaud and Hugh Warren to the firm as associates.
