Reilley Keane Moderates North Carolina's Emerging Tech Landscape Panel

Banner Witcoff's Reilley Keane will moderate "North Carolina's Emerging Tech Landscape" panel on Thursday, April 23.

The panel, hosted by North Carolina Tech Young Tech Professionals Network, will provide attendees with a clearer picture of North Carolina's tech landscape, knowledge of the organizations and communities that can support growth, and practical advice on how to get involved, find mentors, and make connections.
