Richard Stockton Presents at AIPLA Design Patent Law in Review

Shareholder Richard Stockton will present during the AIPLA CLE Webinar: Design Patent Law in Review on June 25.

The panel will review four key Federal Circuit decisions from the past 18 months, North Star, Top Brand, In re Floyd, and Range of Motion, highlighting the practical lessons for practitioners on both sides of design patent disputes.

Additional topics will include:

- Expanding the use of the “Plainly Dissimilar” standard at summary judgement
- Application of prosecution history disclaimer to design patents
- Risks of claiming priority from utility to design applications
- How functionality analysist can dramatically narrow a design patent’s scope

This webinar is eligible for up to 90 Mins CLE. More information can be found here.