Robert S. Katz comments on INTA's Guidelines for Examination of Industrial Designs

Robert S. Katz, the chair of the International Trademark Association's Designs Committee, discusses how INTA's new Guidelines for Examination of Industrial Designs will allow the association to better harmonize and converge its practices in a recent INTA announcement.

Click here to read the full announcement.

Posted: December 12, 2018