

Robert S. Katz moderates a panel at the INTA Annual Meeting in Boston

May 18, 2019

Robert S. Katz moderates a panel at the International Trademark Association's 2019 Annual Meeting in Boston.

Mr. Katz moderates, "Comparative Design Remedies" on May 18th. This session will address the remedial laws once infringement has been determined including monetary remedies (including traditional damages, lost profits, statutory damages, and infringer's profits) as well as injunctive relief. The session will also address types of design enforcements including whether jurisdictions have customs enforcement provisions and their effectiveness.

INTA's Annual Meeting, May 18-22, will draw intellectual property professionals, including practitioners, IP office and government officials, marketers, chief executive officers and brand protection professionals from around the world. It is the largest and most widely attended trademark event.
