

The Interplay of Geopolitics and Patent Law for Enhanced Portfolio Management: Navigating Global Filing and Patent Term Strategy

Shareholder Mercedes Meyer will moderate a panel at the American Conference Institute's (ACI) 22nd Advanced Summit on Life Sciences Patents on Thursday, May 30. Additionally, Mercedes serves as a conference chair.

The panel, "The Interplay of Geopolitics and Patent Law for Enhanced Portfolio Management: Navigating Global Filing and Patent Term Strategy," will unpack the most substantial patent law reforms from around the world in recent years and discuss how geopolitical factors have influenced portfolio management.

Additional topics will include:

- Learning the key considerations for creating harmonized applications around the world
- Considering the major changes to patent terms in the U.S., China, Canada, and supplementary protection certificates (SPCs) in the EU
- Appreciating cultural and international factors influencing patent law
- Putting a price on geopolitical instability, price controls, and government cadence with respect to drug patents

American Conference Institute's 22nd Advanced Summit on Life Sciences Patents will provide practical insights on how to maximize your patent term and develop strategies to enhance global protections for your patent portfolio.
