Main: 312.463.5000
Fax: 312.463.5001

Representing clients in a wide variety of settings, including before courts and in alternative dispute resolution, Anthony helps clients implement their intellectual property strategies and achieve goals. His practice focuses on patent, trademark, trade dress, and copyright litigation and enforcement.

He has experience in fields such as sporting and fitness products, consumer goods, and cleaning products. Anthony has also worked on Banner Witcoff teams handling unique advertising issues.

Anthony leverages the experience he gained before joining Banner Witcoff, which includes time working in the intellectual property department of an engineering company and at an organization that provides products and services in the chemical arts.

During law school, Anthony served as a managing editor of the Indiana Law Journal and worked in Indiana University Maurer School of Law's Intellectual Property Clinic. Under the supervision of the clinic's director, he engaged directly with clients and gained valuable experience in a broad range of intellectual property areas.
