

AI Object, Your Honor: Kirk Sigmon Moderates Panel at VGBA Summit

Banner Witcoff's Kirk Sigmon will moderate a panel at the Video Game Bar Association (VGBA) Summit at Loyola Law School in Los Angeles from Monday, June 2 to Tuesday, June 3.

The panel, "AI Object, Your Honor," will explore the legal hurdles and investment models and discuss mitigating risks associated with artificial intelligence.

According to its website, the VGBA aims to build a global community of legal professionals supporting the video game industry by providing resources, fostering professional relationships, and supporting the education of its members.
