Aseet Patel to Discuss Strategies for IoT Companies on Clear Law Institute Webinar

June 5, 2019

Banner Witcoff attorney Aseet Patel will present a webinar on June 5 on how to minimize the risk of an intellectual property lawsuit affecting an Internet of Things (IoT) product launch.

The Clear Law Institute webinar will provide attendees with an overview of licensing, post-grant review and freedom-to-practice strategies for IoT companies. Aseet will discuss how the U.S. Supreme Court's opinion in Alice v. CLS Bank has impacted IoT inventions, and will provide best practices and takeaways from recent court opinions applying the two-part Alice test.
