Banner Witcoff Attorneys Speak at IPOwners Spring Summit

Banner Witcoff attorneys Camille Sauer and Brad Van Pelt will participate as panelists during the IPOwners Spring Summit in Washington, DC, on Thursday, March 6.

Camille will speak during the Company Culture, Empathic Leadership, and Impact on IP session organized by the Women in IP Law Committee. The panel will discuss the mental health concerns in the industry and how company culture and leadership influence these factors. Camille is currently a member of the Women in IP Committee.

Brad's panel, Global Harmonization and Updates on Green IP, will address Green IP initiatives including how Green IP is being defined at each office (US, Europe, Japan, etc) to share ways harmonization can be achieved between the offices. The session is organized by the Green IP Committee, which Brad currently serves as vice chair.

Find more information about the IPOwners Spring Summit by clicking here.