Chicago Bar Association Highlights Azuka Dike in its 40 Under Forty Feature

Banner Witcoff's Azuka Dike shared his journey to becoming an intellectual property attorney with the Chicago Bar Association (CBA) for its "40 Under Forty Feature."

The column on the CBA blog profiles past winners of the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin's 40 Under Forty award, which Azuka won in 2018. Calling Azuka "a shining star" in IP law, the column notes that his "ambition, work ethic, and dreams are unparalleled, and have allowed him to join the highest echelons of the legal profession in the ten years he has been practicing law."

Click here to read the feature, which details Azuka's path to the legal profession and IP law, as well as his career at Banner Witcoff and how he gives back to the firm, the community and the legal profession.

Posted: April 22, 2021