Counseling & Opinion

We have substantial experience handling licensing matters for clients in a wide range of businesses and industries. We represent clients in all aspects of licensing, including conducting research and due diligence reviews, and providing analysis, strategy, and guidance to ensure our clients enter into a licensing agreement that will benefit their business.

Additionally, we have extensive experience in providing opinions relating to patentability; infringement of patents, trademarks and copyrights, and alleged acts of unfair competition. We also provide counseling to our clients on all aspects of intellectual property to ensure our IP strategies and services align with their needs and business goals.
