Drafting Patents for Litigation and Licensing, Fourth Edition, Now Available

H. Wayne Porter serves as Editor-in-Chief and a chapter author of Drafting Patents for Litigation and Licensing, Fourth Edition, published by ABA Book Publishing.

Representing the collaborative effort of highly experienced attorneys, this two-volume resource helps practitioners draft the broadest possible patent by synthesizing and applying lessons from the case law to sustain a validity challenge. This new edition has been updated to reflect on the ten-year legacy of the Leahy-Smith America Invents Act (AIA) and the significant reform it has had on patent practice with extensive implementation and rulemaking initiatives.

Banner & Witcoff attorneys Steve Chang, Scott Kelly, Robert S. Katz, and Alisa S. Abbott are also contributing authors to Drafting Patents for Litigation and Licensing, Fourth Edition.

Please click here for more information.

Posted: October 15, 2021