Jason is skilled in both offensive and defensive challenges to patent validity, and has been representing clients in inter partes reviews (IPRs) before the PTAB. He has served as lead or backup counsel in several IPRs, with technologies ranging from tire sealants and automotive components to medical devices and formulations.

In addition to his litigation experience and achievements, Jason has a wide range of experience in patent, trademark, and copyright counseling and procurement. Jason has prepared and prosecuted numerous patent applications on a variety of subject matters including medical and diagnostic devices, security systems, structural ceramics, superconducting materials, sports equipment, and other mechanical and electro-mechanical devices and processes. Jason also has experience in preparing and prosecuting domestic and foreign trademark applications.

For the past several years, Jason has consistently been recognized in Who's Who Legal and on Illinois "Super Lawyers" list for his work in intellectual property litigation. He is also listed as a 2026 Illinois Leading Lawyer. He is an active member of the Intellectual Property Owners' Association and the American Bar Association. He has chaired several committees of the ABA Section of Litigation and Section of Intellectual Property Law and has received several awards from the Section of Litigation. In addition, Jason currently serves as Committee Chair for the Arizona Technology Council's Law & Technology Committee.

Jason earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering from Michigan State University. Prior to earning his degree from Michigan State University, Jason attended the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned the Commandant's Silver Wreath for outstanding military performance. Jason earned his Juris Doctor degree from Chicago-Kent College of Law. While pursuing his Juris Doctor degree, Jason also completed graduate coursework towards a Master of Science degree in Chemical Engineering from the Illinois Institute of Technology.
