Lexology Panoramic: Designs

Banner Witcoff is proud to contribute to the latest edition of Panoramic: Designs (USA) by Lexology. Shareholders Alisa Abbott, Bradley Van Pelt, Robert Katz, and Sonia Okolie authored the U.S. chapter, providing insights into the current design patent landscape in the United States.

The guide enables side-by-side comparison of local insights, including into the legal framework; registered and unregistered designs; registration and opposition procedures; enforcement; assignment and licensing; and recent trends.

The chapter is available by clicking here.
