Paul Rivard Highlights the Importance of Ethics and Confidentiality at Cristo Rey Summer Business Training Program

On Tuesday, July 23, Paul Rivard will speak to Cristo Rey Tampa students on ethics & confidentiality as part of their Summer Business Training program.

Paul will lead a workshop focused on ethics in the workplace, emphasizing the importance of speaking and acting with integrity, making good choices, and respecting confidentiality, as well as the property and time of one's employer.

According to its website, Cristo Rey Tampa is a unique Catholic high school guided by the Salesian tradition of education. Catering primarily to students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds across the Tampa Bay area, our school creates a robust and inclusive learning and personal growth environment. Our private college preparatory education program emphasizes the importance of academic excellence and practical skills, preparing students for college and beyond.
