Richard S. Stockton invited to discuss IP with the U.S. Department of State's International Visitor Leadership Program

June 17, 2014

The American Bar Association has invited Richard S. Stockton to discuss intellectual property rights and copyrights with the U.S. Department of State's International Visitor Leadership Program.

This selective program focuses on "American Libraries" and includes 17 library professionals and academics from around the world. They will examine the role and functions of libraries and information specialists, and the information technology used by libraries, including online and digital services.

The delegation will visit Chicago and meet with Mr. Stockton and other ABA representatives July 2-3, 2014.

For more information on the International Visitor Leadership Program, please click here.

Posted: June 17, 2014