Sheldon W. Witcoff Receives Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award

Retired shareholder Sheldon W. Witcoff has been honored with the Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award.

Marquis Who's Who, a publisher of biographical profiles, noted the recognition in a June 4 announcement detailing Sheldon's distinguished career. Sheldon retired in 2010 after practicing in the firm's Chicago office for more than 40 years.

One of the highest distinctions available through Marquis Who's Who, the Lifetime Achievement Award honors those who "have demonstrated leadership, excellence and longevity within their respective industries and professions," according to the publisher.

Click here to view Sheldon's listing on the roster of Who's Who lifetime achievement inductees.

Posted: June 4, 2019